1786. Charity Carpenter

Died in aged 41. Leonard and Charity Smith must have died within a short time of one another as in the 1860 Erie Co, PA Census, Julia is in the home of Daniel and Phebe Carpenter Pomeroy and Sarah and Harriet were in the home of Phineas and Judith Carpenter Pomeroy. Neither of the Pomeroy couples appears to have had any children of their own, at least none who grew past infancy. Daniel and Phineas were born in MA and were brothers. I have as of 9 June 1999, not been able to tie them in with the Pomeroy families in Erie Co, of which there are a number. Per Cheri Nolan.

Zophar's wife was Rebecca (Lauton). They had a daughter named Elizabeth. In his will, Zophar names his niece, Anna Lanning, daugher of his deceased sister, Phoebe Lanning.Of course, he lived so long that most of his family was already deceased. His daughter, Adelia, named after his deceased sister, Adelia Cook, was the mother of Alfreda, who was my grandmother.She married William Lane Winner. My dad was W. L. Winner, Jr.,and my maiden name was Frances Adelia Winner.I am interested in finding where in England his father, John B., and his grandfather, John, came from. Do you lhave anything on that?I can send you this will which names several people, but I think I wouild have to use e-mail.Frances Wright

1790. Coles Carpenter

Number 720 in the Daniel H. Carpenter book, 1901.
Family on page 241 & 242.

Per Coles Carpenter himself, he was "wayward and wild" prior to his marriage. He was led to see the folly of his ways by the preaching of earnest Methodist ministers and united himself with the church at North Castle. He soon became convinced that it was his duty to preach the Gospel. He became fully satisfied on this point that nothing could turn him back, so after a brief preparatory service as a exhorter, class leader, et cetera, he was licensed as a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the age of 24. Up to the day of his death he continued earnestly and faithfully in his arduous, self denying work. He was regarded by his fellow ministers as an able, conscietious and godly man. He was Presiding Elder of the Troy District when he was taken sick, and after a brief illness, he died at Cambridge.
Coles wife died a few years later in her 65th year.
The family recorded was written out by Coles himself on April 11, 1829 and was furnished to the compiler of "The Carpenter Family in America" by his son, Richard Carpenter of Rockford, IL in 1900.

Caroline was born and lived in Rockford for most of her 60 years. She was a clerk at Stewart's dry goods store for almost 20 years.
In 1902, suffering from severe melancholy, she was declared "insane". Her mental issues were said to be a result of "too close attention to her work" and not taking time off.
After time off and traveling, she settled in Elgin near her brother. She worked there as a clerk in Ackerman Brothers' department store for 12 years.
She returned to Rockford in 1921 to care for her mother and after her death continued to reside there. She was on a visit to Elgin preparing to go to California when seized with the fatal illness.

Caroline M. Dickenson

The Daniel H. Carpenter book indicates she died on 17 June 1885 at aged 40, 4 months, 12 days. This information is different from the information supplied by John L. Carpenter (born 1945) of NH who reports death date of 29 Sep 1925. Could the person who died in 1925 be the second wife?
Also one record has 5 children (John L. Carpenter) and the book indicates 3. Benjamin and Coles F. are the different children.

Subject: Susan McCoon Halstead 1870 - 1945 FYI
My grt grandmother wife of Coles Carpenter 1872 - 1945
DEATH: City location uncertain.
Hello John,Some years back we were in touch. I have come across a newsclip of Susie Halstead who lived with her grandparents-Mr and Mrs Roberdee in 1887 before she married to Coles. She had run off to a Theatrical company at age 16. They, Susie & grandparent's, lived in Roslyn at the time.Somehow she has got the last name of McCoon tacked on but she is a Halstead-Father George Halstead (1846) and mother Sarah (1845) -living in North Hempstead, Queens co in 1880. A Grandmother, Susan Halstead is living with them age 60 bn NY.A Robedee descendant has Coles deceased in 1945 in Freeport, and Susie deceased in 1945 Jamaica.Do you have anymore on this coupleThanks if you can helpCarol Ann Berry (descend from Roberdee's in Iowa)Cedartre@aol.com (9/09)
When Lillian Carpenter married to Willliam Bennett Roberdee-his parents were John Roberdee and Susan McCoun Bennett. I am from John Roberdee's 1st marriage to Sarah Bond to come to Iowa. John is only one to keep the R in Robedee/Roberdee. All the New York people dropped the R sometime around 1900.....I am trying to figure out which Roberdee grandparents this clip is talking about since Lillian was not married to William until 1889 and would not be granparent's anyway-so would you think it is John and Susan Bennett/Roberdee that she lived withCarol BerryThe New York TimesPublished October 19, 1887A WAYWARD GIRLMiss Susie Halstead, a handsome girl, 16 years old, who resided with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roberdee, in Roslyn, Long Island, has disappeared from Home, and, it is supposed, has gone to join a theatrical troupe. This is her second disappearance within three weeks. She left home a little over two weeks ago, and after several days was found by a detective in this city. A day or two after this Miss Halstead attempted to cut her throat in the presence of her granadparents. Then she became apparently contented, but on Monday, without any warning, she started off, and nothing has since been seen or heard of her. During the Summer Miss Halstead made the acquaintance of some members of a theatrical company who were boarding in Roslyn, and whose stories of an actress's life aroused in her a desire to go upon the stage. It is thought she has gone to find some of these people.

Number 1335 in the Carpenter Family in America book (1901).
Thomas was murdered on his sailing ship 12 Dec. 1887 by a hired hand.

Thomas was born on the old Carpenter homestead in Glen Cove, Long Island, New York. His parents were Coles and Martha (Tuttle) Carpenter. The homestead in the village of Sea Cliff now. Thomas was brought up with the sea. His father and uncle were ship owners in the sailing community as were their ancestors as far back as 1740's. As a teenager, in Sept 1862, he enlisted in the Union Armies 5th Heavy Artillery Co "C" at a New York rally along with his brother George. Thomas was discharged in Sept 1863. Thomas was afflicted with chronic kidney ailment and rheumatism which was made worse by several overnight details in the rain. He married Elizabeth Velsor at Syosset Long Island and returned home to live. He worked up seniority and became senior skipper of his uncle's ship the "Long Island". In Sept 1865 his daughter Aida died at 8 months of age. In 1866 Elizabeth died of consumption. In 1868 he married Hannah Strong at New York City. After a short time Thomas learned of her unfaithfulness to him and applied for a divorce. Finally on January 16,1876 a divorce was granted. Thomas married Christina Nielson. She was 16 years old and he was now 38 years old. Their marriage was rough. They lived at Christina's parents home in Brooklyn, NY. There were financial difficulties plus Thomas was out to sea frequently. They separated in 1884. Thomas lived most of the time on his Uncle's ship. He was murdered by Henry Francke on November 20,1886. He was 48 years old five feet eight and weighed 180 lbs with gray hair & a mustach. His body was found on May 28,1887 by local fisherman at Matinecock. The body had seven bullet holes and one leg and one arm were missing, presumed eaten away by fish. There was evidence that the body had been anchored down by the murderer. There was one dollar bill found in his pocket.Henry Francke confessed on his death bed of the murder. He was long suspected but never tried. He stated he was long haunted by what he described as the dead captain's ghost. The disagreement was regarding his pay. Captain Thomas Carpenter's remains were interred in the family plot in sea Clif, Long Iasland, NY. He was survived by his parents, three brothers, four sisters and his wife Christina. - From "Murder On The High Sea" by John L. Carpenter.

ARTICLE:
The following supplied by: John L. Carpenter of New Hampshire.
"Murder On The High Sea"
by John L. Carpenter
Sunday morning came as any other morning to this small sailing community. It was November 21,1886 and the community was preparing for the thanksgiving holiday. Glen Cove, New York is located on the north coast of Long Island situated near the mouth of Hempstead Harbor. On this particular Sunday morning, Mr. C.L.Perkins was taking a morning stroll along the beach front when he noticed a schooner with all sails set. Mr.Perkins called out several times and received no reply. Upon further exploration he found that things were scattered about the cabin and there appeared to be bloodstains on the deck and other areas. Mr. Perkins notified the local police.
After investigating the police concluded that the schooner was the "Long Island" owned by James S. Carpenter & Sons. It had been sailed by Mr. Carpenter's nephew Thomas Dunham Carpenter of Sea Cliff, New York. It was determined that the stains on the schooner deck and other areas wereblood, and signs of a struggle had taken place. Also there was a small amount of money left in the cabin area. The captain's trunk was not tampered with. The schooner could not have run ashore on its own at the place it did because of all the rocks about. The captain was missing. There was no doubt that he set sail from New York City on Sunday afternoon, November 20,1886.
Its was not known if he was alone. The captain was last seen off Sands Point, about five miles west of where the schooner was found, by Capt. Peters of the tug boat "Glen Cove". Capt. Peters stated he saw the captain at the wheel and had not noticed anyone else about. Also missing was the boatman (1st-mate) Henry Francke. He had only been employed for the last two months. After Brooklyn police were notified they brought Mr. Francke to their 55th Street Station House for questioning. He had been staying athis mother's house at 611 Humboldt St. At the arraignment he gave thefollowing statement: "I shipped with Capt. Carpenter two months ago. We two managed the schooner. I had a disagreement with Capt. Carpenter about my pay when we left Glen Cove for New York City on Thursday last. I told him that I would leave him unless I get more pay. I received my months wages after we arrived in New York City, then I left the schooner. On Saturday I went to Jay Street Pier where the schooner was lying to see if the captain would give me more pay. He wouldn't so I went away. He then took the schooner out alone. I went off to my sister's house and slept the Saturday night there and to my mothers on Sunday. I know nothing of what has come of Captain Carpenter." Mr. Francke was transferred to Glen Cove lockup for further questioning and arraignment before Justice Frost at Glen Cove. This transfer has caused some questions as well as controversy in Brooklyn and by the Queens County authorities. It is believed, by Queens County authorities that the taking of the prisoner, Henry Francke, to Glen Cove was not approved by the queens county authorities. It is also uncertain that Glen Cove police actually have jurisdiction of this case, there being no actual proof to the locality of this crime. it would have been better, Brooklyn residents felt, if the investigation took place in Brooklyn,where there is a trained detective force. the follow up on clues could have been done in a more professional manner. Mr. Francke could have obtained the attendance of witnesses' At small expense if he was innocent.

On Friday, November 26,1886 Mr. Francke was brought before Justice Frost in Glen Cove. Mr. Flemming was district attorney prosecuting the case. as a result Mr. Francke was discharged because of insufficient evidence against him. Afterward he was held as a witness and privately examined . The results were not made public. Of course at this time there is no positive proof that Capt. Carpenter had been murdered and no body found. It is assumed by authorities that the captain was murdered, robbed, and thrown overboard. Then the perpetrators took the schooner to shore, where they made their escape, after putting out the fire in the forward cabin by pouring water over the coals. Some New York City authorities believe that river pirates could have committed this crime. A $50.00 reward is offered for the recovery of the body of Capt. Thomas D. Carpenter's body. He was 48 years old five feet eight inches tall, weighing onehundred and eighty pounds, with gray hair and a mustache.

Addendum
It has been reported that Henry Francke who was long suspected of murdering Captain Thomas Carpenter, confessed on his death bed of the murder. He stated he was long haunted by what he described as the dead captain's ghost. Perhaps Mr. Francke was fearful of retaliation in the after life? Other details of his confession were not readily known.

WHO KILLED CAPTAIN CARPENTER?
THE SAILOR HENRY P. FRANK ARRESTED
HE SAYS HE DID NOT GO ON THE SCHOONER—RIVER THIEVES SUGGESTED.
Henry P. Frank, who, It was thought, had murdered Captain Carpenter, of the schooner Long Island, off Glen Cove have Saturday or Sunday morning, was arrested yesterday and taken to the Seventh Precinct Police Station in Brooklyn. He told the police that he did not sail In the vessel from Jay St. This makes the police begin to think that if the captain was really murdered, it must have been by pirates or river thieves. James Carpenter, of Sea Cliff, the owner of the schooner, said yesterday that the man (Frank) had been employed on the vessel only about three months, and that the captain said a short time ago that he was afraid of him and would discharge him. When the captain sailed from New York on Saturday afternoon he had $100. The place where the schooner was found, on Sunday morning, is about three miles from Sea Cliff and nobody unacquainted with the shore at that point and the handling of boats could have brought her there without her being Injured. His schooner was seen as he passed Fort Schuyler at 5 Saturday evening.
Captain L. Carpenter, of Glen Cove, a brother of the murdered man said, “That no one man would have dared to assault his brother, who was six feet high and weighed 200 pounds.” “Early Sunday morning,” he continued, “two strange men were seen passing through the village of Glen Cove and going toward the railroad depot.”
The news of Frank's arrest at Greenpoint yesterday drew a large crowd of people to the railway station who expected to see the prisoner. Among them was C. Carpenter, the murdered man’s Father, who is eighty years old. The captain's trunk, which was found in the schooner's cabin, was locked when found, and the detectives have placed boards over the blood stains on the vessel's hull. When the discovery was first made the blood marks were dry and the fire in the galley stove had only just been put out. The captain's wife, father and four brothers live in Brooklyn and they have all followed a sea-faring life.
It is thought by Glen Cove people that Carpenter was watched by thieves who saw him leave this city alone and that they followed him, boarded the vessel, killed him and then threw his body overboard. A sharp watch Is being kept along the shore, and a reward will be offered for the finding of the body.
Frank, who is suspected of the murder, was arrested by Detective Doulin and Ayres yesterday morning at his mother's house. No. 811 Humboldt St., Williamsburg. He was asleep In bed, when Detective Doulin shook him and said " You're wanted for having murdered a man." “What!?” exclaimed Frank. jumping up in a hair stupid way.
"Has Tom given me away?” He was nervous and excited and when he grew more composed he said that he was paid off on Friday and went to the pier at Jay St. on Saturday, when he saw the Captain take the schooner up atone. He then returned, he says, to his mother's house at Greenpoint. After this statement Frank was locked up In the police station. His mother said to the detectives that he was a bad man and that this was not the first accusation upon which he had been in trouble.

Coles A. Carpenter, a cousin of the murdered man, has organized parties both at Glen Cove and Coney Island who will explore the rivers and see if there is anything in the theory that river thieves committed the murder.
When Frank was brought before Justice Nacher, previous to being committed to jail, he looked fret-fallen. He is of medium height, slender and not more than twenty-six years old. On seeing Coles A. Carpenter he turned pale, but recovering himself quickly and in response to Mr. Carpenters observation: "Do you know me? Yes, certainly," and offered to shake hands with him. He waived examination and was taken to the Raymond Street Jail, his mother and sister crying and embracing him as he left the court.

Captain Carpenter, the Missing Man's Brother, Holds to the Murder Theory.
A REWARD FOR THE BODY
The fate of Captain Thomas D. Carpenter. Who has been missing from his schooner. the Long, Island., since last saturday night or Sunday morning is still a mystery.
His brothers believe him murdered.. Several private detectives who have been employed by the relatives concerned yesterday visited the schooner as she lay afloat off Red Springs. near Glen Cove. Where,she had been found deserted with sails set,on the beach, and satisfied themselves that the blood spots on the stern deck and on the freshly broken ."setting pole' as well as upon the stool that the steersman had used for a seat were the result of a murderous assault.
No accident could have spirited the captain away and left such traces as they found, quote the detetectives.
RUMORS OF A HOAX EXPLORED
Those o the Glen Cove villagers who were not informed as to the facts gathered yesterday by Captain Jacob Carpenter hare begun to circulate yarns about the possibility of the absent captain being gone on a spree. "Somebody has started the story that my brother was missing some time ago." for a long while said Captain Jacob Carpenter. and that he turned up all right, In the spring. That is a. false hood from beginning to end. He left his own schooner for a time and stopped with me on mine for a little while only, and that is the foundation for the absurd rumor. I tell you be has been murdered," Captain Jacob Carpenter was very earnest in what he said and when asked his reason for believing that a tragic end had come to his brother said it—, "Henry T. Frank says that be had a row with Car-tain

Carpenter and did not sail with him from Jay street last Saturday on that account. Is that con. Peet? Yes? Well„ Frank also states that he saw Captain Carpenter sail away with his schooner alone? lire% Now there-, for my reasons. Captain Peat's of the tug Glen Cove, tells me that be passed the Long Island Saturday evening and he clistinctly raw three men on board the schooner, I also have it from several very reputable men. whose names I do not think it advisable to disclose just at present, that Frank threatened the captain several, times.'
THREATS OF VIOLENCE,
What was the nature of the threats was asked of Captain Jacob Carpenter. . Frank you know, was employed at deckhand on the schooner. Several times he got drunk and the captain ordered him ashore both at New 'York and here at Glen Coves On each of these occasions Frank swore that if the captain discharged him he—the captain—would never leave his schooner alive.
" BLOOD STAINED TR0SERS'
Have you discovered any additional evidences of assault The captain was averse to answering this question at first, but finally consented to talk on the subject "A, pair of trousers was found in the yawl at the 'stern of the schooner." said the captain, and the front of them from the knees down was covered with blood." 'Do you mean that the captain was stripped of his clothing and thrown overboard ?
Oh, no, answered the captain with a. grant of satisfaction. The trousers had been worn by Frank. They were Frank's trousers." The captain slapped his hands together emphatically and his eyes sparkled with enthusiasm. "And the trousers were not entirely within the yawl." Part of them hung overboard and lay in the careless position that they 'would nave assumed If thrown out of the cabin door.. To my mind whoever had on those trousers at the time of the murder took them off In the schooner cabin and throw them overboard. as he supposed. He did not for a moment think that the trousers would catch on the yawl. Oh no. it was intended that they should sink out of sight." As a suit of the missing captain's clothes are missing. this bit of evidence appeared to Captain Jacob Carpenter to be very important,
FRANK'S MASONIC PIN
And do you see this little pin?" added Captain Jacob, taking a small Masonic pin marked with a large With a large initial "G" from his pocket. "Mr.. Coles Carpenter, a cousin of Captain Thomas Carpenter, the missing man ,gave that pin to Franke and on Sunday a week ago I saw Frank trying to fasten the pin on a new heavy vest. Well. sir. today I found this pin on top of Frank's trunk in the schooners cabin." Continuing in his convincing way Captain Jacob Carpenter said that he believed the two men who were seen by the night watchman of Glen Cove, with bundles under their arms. going through the streets of that village" were the murderers, How they got on board the schooner he could not tell, but it was his own opinion that 'whoever murdered the captain met him in the East river in a rowboat.
"HE HAD STRUCK A MINE"
Henry T. Frank, who was arrested for the crime at his mother's residence, No,611 Humboldt street, Brooklyn, E. D., Monday morning was arraigned before Justice Naeller. of Brooklyn yesterday and given In charge of Deputy Sheriff Avers.; on a warrant Issued by Justice Frost, of Glen Cove. The prisoner was hagard in appearance aid wept bitterly, he was locked up In the Queens County Jail. He will be taken to Glen Cove for examination before Justice Frost today.
Detective Donum ,of the seventh precinct (Brooklyn police station.) has visited several places where Frank spent his time last Sunday and learned that while under the influence of Liquor Frank displayed more money' than he was wont to have in his possession. and said that ho bad "struck a mine."
This statement by Frank's sister that be was seen in Greenpoint" concluded Captain Jacob Carpenter. may be all right In it self. but there is a train" that leaves Glen Cove at thirteen minutes to eleven on Saturday evenings, as stated in the HERALD this morning. and be could have taken that train and reached Greenpoint at five minutes to twelve"
"REWARD FOR CARPENTER'S BODY"
The following notice Is to be posted all along the coasts of Long Island today::
$ 50 REWARD.
Thee above reward will be paid for the recovery of the body of (CAPTAIN THOMAS D. CARPENTER of the Schooner Long Island. Who is believed to have been killed and his body thrown overboard on the night or morning of the 20th or 21st between Old Ferry Point and Glen Cove. Captain Thomas D. Carpenter was about five feet eight in height weighed about 180 pounds; Hair very gray, and mustache, and Is marked with a very distinctive saber wound across the ,small of his back. Any Information concerning the same will be thankfully received by Capt JACOB CARPENTER„ Sea Cliff, L.I. Dated Nov 23, 1886
The conductor of the train on the Long Island railroad that left Glen Core at about ten o'clock last Saturday night has not been seen by the authorities. It is believed that ho ought to be able to Identitfy the passengers who got on his train at that point, as It is not customary to pick up passengers at that hour.

MATE HENRY FRANK TO BE ARRESTED AGAIN,

Coroner Hall, of Glen Cove, L I., began an inquest yesterday upon the case of Captain Thomas D. Carpenter, who is supposed to have been murdered on board of his schooner Long Island on November 20, and whose body floated ashore at Glen Cove last week. After several witness had testified as to the, condition of the schooner when found, Captain Henry Abrams, of Whites tone told the jury that on Saturday, November 19, he saw the schooner off Flagg's Neck with two men on board, This statement convinced the listeners that the dead captain had taken Henry Frank, the mate of the schooner, aboard and a warrant was Immediately Issued for Frank's arrest, as a witness, and given to Detective James Ayers to execute. Samuel A. Adams a New York stevedore next testified that he saw Henry A. Frank assisting the dead captain to get his vessel out of port from the foot of Jay-st. on November I8. The inquest is continued today.

The Murder Theory Confirmed

By Associated Press to THE TIMES

GLEN Cove, L. I., May 25.—Dr. Watson who made the autopsy on the body of Captain Thomas D. Carpenter, which was found a short time ago, after having been in the water for more than six months says Captain Carpenter was not drowned. But was undoubtedly dead before he was put in the water. This confirms the theory that he was murdered by a person who was on board of the schooner Long Island with him when he sailed from New York Nov. 18, and who, after robbing him of a large amount of money and his watch, threw his body overboard and ran the vessel ashore at Sea Cliff; where it .was found two days afterward.

DOCTOR SAVES MAN'S LIMB BY. BAKING AND FREEZING
By Associated Press, New York, NY
May 6, 1908
Policeman Coles Carpenter , while stepping out of a car last July, Policeman Coles Carpenter fell on a rusty nail,wounding his right leg. Mortification set in and last December that amputation was necessary.
After he had been told by experinced Surgeon's that his leg must be amputated and that even then his life might not be spared Policeman Coles Carpenter is about again on crutches and will soon be able to use both his limbs as well as ever. A priest had been summoned to administer the last rites of the church to Carpenter. before an operation when Dr. Raymond Sullivan. a young Intern at St. Mary's Hospital. said he thought he could save both life and limb. By alternately baking the leg, which had been poisoned by a rusty nail, to a heat of 200 degrees and then plunging it Into a freezing ammonia tank, the blood was driven out, carrying the impurities along with it and halting the mortification. which had set in. Physicians who were 'called into the case said that the policeman undoubtedly owed not only saving of his limb, but his life to the young intern.

Subject: Carpenter Family History
Greetings. I am the grandson of Louise Maas who was born Louise Carpenter in 1901. She was one of five of the daughters of Erastus Carpenter (my great grandfather) and his wife Maria Carpenter (maiden name Neuscheler). They also had a son Herbert Carpenter, all of which is contained in the 1910 Census for the Town of West New York in Hudson County New Jersey. My Great grandfather Erastus was the son of Erastus R. Carpenter who is identified on your website of descendants of William Carpenter of Providence as No. 3749 in the Eighth Generation which lists the same census material in the notes as I have been able to locate. You have him listed as marrying Louisa "Shelf" which is accurate but in all liklihood her maiden name was actually "Schelpf" which is consistent with the name of Antinette "Shelpf" (more likely correctly spelled "Schelpf") as reflected on the 1870 Census who it would seem is the younger sister of Louisa. In addition, Erastus and Louisa owned an establishment (hotel/saloon) in Guttenberg, New jersey known as Jennie Shelp's Cottage (I hav a print of an old advertisement) which leads me to further believe the actual name was Schelpf which is consistent with both of Louisa's parents being born in Germany as reflected on the 1880 Census for them (both Shelf and Shelp would seem to be "Americanized" versions of Schelpf).
In any event, your work has confirmed what my mother had always told us about our roots in America going back to Plymouth as while our Carpenter name is that of William of Providence, his son married the daughter of William of Rehoboth. What spurred us to finally do some "digging" (no pun intended) was my aunt (who with my mother is one of the 2 daughters of Louise Maas) was not doing so well so we decided to locate the graves we could and go from there before we lost another memory of the past. In that regard, we have in fact located the graves of Louisa (the wife of Erastus 3749), his son Erastus 5913 and his wife Maria, all of whom are buried in a "Carpenter" plot in the New English Reformed Church in Ridgefield, New Jersey. There are other Carpenters buried there and I will reterive those records when I visit next. However, we do not yet know where Erastus 3749 is buried. We know he died in 1885 (apparently after falling down some stairs according to a newspaper article) and that he may have been the first mayor of Hudson City, New Jersey which was previously known as Hudson Town and ultimately became part of what is now Jersey City in 1870. Apparently, the plots were bought by Erastus 5913 (the son of Erastus 3749) in or about 1906 when Louisa passed and she was the first to be buried there with a headstone bearing he Carpenter name which simply identifies her as Grandma (according to the 1910 census, at the time of Louisa's death in 1906, Erastus and Maria had five childtren, Mary (age 15), Henrietta or "Etta" (age 13), Ross (age 12), Herbert (age 8) and my grandmother Louise (age 5). They ultimately had another daughter Viola who is buried there with her husband Nicholas Simeone and they had 2 boys Roger and Richard.
We have some work to do on finding Erastus 3749 but I will be back to you with any findings I make. If you would like some of the printouts of the information I have gathered thus far, let me know and I will be happy to image and send them.
Fascinating stuff.

Hi John. Not sure of the status of the carpenter cousins project but my great grandfather was Erastus Carpenter (5913 in the list of descendants of William Carpenter of Providence) who was the son of Erastus R. Carpenter (3749 in the list). Your list ends there. Erastus (my great grandfather) married Maria Neuschler and they had six daughters: Henrietta (Etta), Ross, Sadie, Rae, Louise and Viola and two sons Erastus who died within a year of being born and Herbert who was born in 1898. Louise was my grandmother and died before I was born. Her daughter was my mother Viola who married George D. Sodini. They had three children, George Thomas Sodini, Lynn Ann Sodini and me. My mother died in 1997. I am married to Kathleen M. Sodini (maiden name Riley) and we have three sons, Alexander, Andrew and Arick.
I would be interested in adding to the project and have other information on other descendants of Erastus 5913. What do you need from me to assist?

Description
Revenge of the Red Raiders takes the reader on an unforgettable journey with America's young airmen across the war zones of the Southwest Pacific. This intensely researched and definitive account of one of America's premier Army Air Force bombardment units follows the 22nd Bomb Group from its Stateside prewar formation and training through its deployment to Northern Australia during the earliest days of WWII, through the end of the conflict on the island of Okinawa. Initially equipped with the B-26 Marauder, the 22nd BG pioneered the Pacific island-hopping route to Australia, then was one of the first American combat units to strike back at the Japanese in the skies over Rabaul and New Guinea. Later the 22nd partially re-equipped with the B-25 Mitchell, before becoming a B-24 Liberator Heavy Bombardment Unit and fighting its way across the Southwest Pacific to the doorstep of Japan. Revenge of the Red Raiders features over 600 pages of text and is illustrated by more than 1000 color and black and white photos, 4 magnificent color paintings by renowned aviation artist Jack Fellows, 48 full-color aircraft profiles, by Steve W. Ferguson and 16 detailed maps, showing all bases, the location of every mission flown, and the site of each aircraft lost. The chronological text is supplemented by definitive appendices of leaders, casualties, every combat aircraft flown, an encyclopedic history of the unit's aircraft and markings and insignias. Compiled from wartime records of the US, Japan and Australia, supplemented by the personal experiences of hundreds of the units veterans, this book stands as a landmark in aviation history. A particularly unique feature is the careful matching of information from both American and Japanese sources, providing for the first time an accurate account of the events portrayed from both sides of the action.
Reviews
"US publishers really do 'go for it' when it comes to major works that have all the stops pulled out; UK publishers are far too timid most of the time! A blockbuster of a book, sub-titled The Illustrated History of the 22nd BG, it is part of the ‘Eagles over the Pacific’ series. With B-26s and later B-24s, the 22nd migrated with the Pacific War from Darwin to the Philippines to Okinawa. The level of detail in this book is breathtaking."

Peter Cooper

Per the Carpenter Memorial on page 62 under number 90: John Bedell married an Elizabeth Carpenter. (HOWEVER that information is almost 100 years to early for that family! MAYBE it fits here!)
"They had a daughter Sarah (Bedell) who m. Peter Cooper." Peter Cooper was born 12 Feb 1791, NY and married Miss Sarah Bedell of Hempstead, LI, Dec. 1813. She died in 1869. Is this the right father and mother?

Number 808 in the book "The Carpenter Family in America" by Daniel H. Carpenter, 1901. Family on page 261.

NOTE: While Ezra is not listed with the Carpenters of Clara Cemetery, many of his family are. Being a family cemetery, it is highly likely that that the Carpenter (see below) are related. I also reference Find A Grave when found also.
While not proven, Ezra & Joseph were probably sons of Joseph Carpenter. All that said, take it with a grain of salt. JRC Yep, theory disproven! Ancestry found! Father is Isaac Carpenter.

1262. Deliverance Carpenter

This line submitted by Donald A. Carpenter of Holy Hill, FL in April of 1997.
On 23 Feb 2002 Don (now of Daytona Beach, FL) updated this descendentcy line.
Deliverance was a male. The whole family is buried in the Old Church Cemetery at Jordanville, Herkimer county, New York.

The brother of Deliverance is John born about 1761 to 1770 per this record.
"Joseph's mother died when he was only 12 years old, so he ent to live with his Uncle, Deliverance Carpenter in Herkimer, Herkimer county, New York. While he was there he served in the War of 1812 at Saketts Harbor, New York. When he went back to Herkimer, NY he married Parmilia Hines, daughter of Reubin Hines. They married in Warren, NY. He then moved to Scipio, Schonarie county, NY. Later he moved to Newfield, Tompkins county, NY where he died.
If Deliverance is Joseph's Uncle, he must be Joseph's father's younger brother. John was born in 1770 and Deliverance was born in 1777, so there must have been other children between them. Admiral Carpenter does not mention any other children except John in his work. The only thing I have been able to prove about Deliverance is from the 1800 US Census, where at that time he was living in Washington,,NY. My cousin Jean Albright Carpenter sent me the family of Deliverance." DAC

This line submitted by Donald A. Carpenter of Holy Hill, FL in April of 1997.
On 23 Feb 2002 Don (now of Daytona Beach, FL) updated this descendancy line.

Joseph's mother died when he was only 12 years old, so he ent to live with his Uncle, Deliverance Carpenter in Herkimer, Herkimer county, New York. While he was there he served in the War of 1812 at Saketts Harbor, New York. When he went back to Herkimer, NY he married Parmilia Hines, daughter of Reubin Hines. They married in Warren, NY. He then moved to Scipio, Schonarie county, NY. Later he moved to Newfield, Tompkins county, NY where he died.
If Deliverance is Joseph's Uncle, he must be Joseph's father's younger brother. John was born in 1770 and Deliverance was born in 1777, so there must have been other children between them. Admiral Carpenter does not mention any other children except John in his work. The only thing I have been able to prove about Deliverance is from the 1800 US Census, where at that time he was living in Washington,,NY. My cousin Jean Albright Carpenter sent me the family of Deliverance. DAC

Notes

2618. Glezen Fillmore Carpenter

NOTE: #291-4 of the T. Carpenter book. GLEZEN sometimes written as GLEAZEN or GLEASON was the first official interment in Evergreen Cemetery after his father dedicated the land to the community for the cemetery. Had at least one child.

2619. Lewis Carpenter

NOTE: #292-4 in the T. Carpenter book. LEWIS was married three times and had issue with all three. LEWIS and his brother JOHN were named executors of their father's will dated 5-26-1882. LEWIS petitioned to act as administrator. Each spouse has an individual gravestone; these stones were in good condition in 1974.

A pattern of the deaths of the first two wives suggest that either LEWIS divorced JANET WILDER (died 1863) or LEWIS was a practicing Mormon, concidering that his second spouse, LORAINE died in 1862. Regardless of the situation, each was given honored status in death.

Carpenter, George Monroe
Released 22 March 2004
A Standard History of Kansas and Kansans

George Monroe Carpenter. In those activities which lead to success George M. Carpenter had pursued an undeviating career since early manhood. He is one of the leading bankers, capitalists and business men of Southern Kansas and Northern Oklahoma, and is the founder of the City of Elgin, Kansas, where he resided. He began life in comparatively humble circumstances. He knows what it is to be poor and work hard, and his sympathy had always gone out to the man who is struggling to get ahead.

He was born in St. Lawrence County, New York, November 16, 1842. The public schools of his native county gave him his early education, he graduated from the Lawrenceville High School at the age of nineteen, and then spent three years in the Academy at Gonverneur, New York. Leaving school in 1864 be was for several years employed in a flour mill at Lawrenceville. Going west to Clinton County, Iowa, he worked as a farm laborer three years.

Mr. Carpenter first came to what is now Elgin, Kansas, in 1872. He became identified with the cattle industry when practically all the southwestern country was a vast cattle range. After coming to Elgin he went back to Iowa, and soon began driving cattle back and forth over the trails from Texas to the north. His second arrival in Elgin was with a bunch of cattle from Texas, For forty years or more Mr. Carpenter had been identified with the cattle business, at one time was among the largest cattle men in the state, and is still interested in that line, though not so extensively as formerly. He is also a farmer, though not personally active in that vocation. In Chautauqua County he owned 1,200 aeres, and at one time owned nearly all the Townsite of Elgin, and still had his residence on the northwest quarter of the old townsite. He was the man who more than anyone else founded and established the early prosperity of Elgin, and in many ways had influenced its development. Among other property interests here he had two business buildings on Main Street, one of them the postoffice building, and is also a real estate holder in the City of Independence, being interested in the Carl-Leon Hotel and Opera Honse. He had two business houses and dwellings in Sedan, Kansas, and a business house in Chautauqua.

His individual capital is part of the resources of a nnmber of banks. He is vice president of the Citizens National Bank of Independence, owned an interest in the Elgin State Bank, is president of the Fairfax National Bank in Fairfax, Oklahoma, and is a stockholder in the First National Bank of Pawhuska, the First National Bank of Skiatook, the First National Bank of Foraker, the First National Bank of Bigheart and the First National Bank of Prue, all these institutions being in Oklahoma. In matters of politics Mr. Carpenter is a democrat. He is both a Mason and Odd Fellow. His church is the Methodist Episcopal.

This branch of the Carpenter family came originally from England and settled in New York in Colonial days. His father, John F, Carpenter, was born at Whitehall, New York, in 1808, spent the first twenty-five years of his life there, and then removed to St. Lawrence County, New York, where he married. He was a physician and surgeon, a graduate of a medical school in Vermont, and was successfully engaged in practice at Lawrenceville until his death in 1868. He became a member of the republican party upon its organization, was active in the Methodist Episcopal Church and served as a deacon. Dr. Carpenter married Miss Mary Blish, who was born in New York State in 1808 and died at Lawrenceville, New York, in 1858. The children of this marriage were: Lucy, who died in New York State, the wife of George Delno, who was a speculntor and horse dealer, and is also deceased; John, who was a merchant and died in Missouri; George M.; Carrie, who is the wife of Dr. Wood, and they reside at Lockport, New York; Charles, a merchant at Big Rapids, Michigan. Dr. Carpenter married for his second wife Lucy Blish, a sister of his first wife. Their four children were: Jennie, who died in New York State, the wife of George Ewings, who was a farmer and is also deceased; Frank, of New York City; Nathan, of Seattle, Washington, and Charles.

George M. Carpenter was married in St. Lawrence County, New York, in November, 1869, to Miss Hattie Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee. Her father was a farmer near Malone, New York. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter had one child, Leon, who died aged twenty-two years.

Hi John,
In Aug one Sandra Yorkell-Parker and yourself had a short memo between you regarding my interest in my CARPENTER family research. So I am entering into that memo and introducing myself and my family to you. I am Evelyn Carpenter Small-Wellman and live in Spokane Wa on the east side of Washington state where we have mountains and lakes, snow in the winter and drier, hotter summers than Seattle area.
My CARPENTER trail hits a brick wall at the birth of our (1) Civil War Vet in 1827 Orange Co NY (possibly Cornwall). (2)Born SAMUEL TOWNSEND CARPENTER to (4)Lucy(6) MARIA DENNISTON and ? CARPENTER. He had a younger sister (5)ANN ELIZA CARPENTER who married JAMES S CAMPBELL, moved to Milwaukee WI and owned a 'yankee notions' store (quote). They had no children and I don't know where they were buried.
The next primary document I have on (4)SAMUEL TOWNSEND is his marriage in 1853 St Joseph MO(3) to (4) PHOEBE ELLEN(DER) BROWN (born in Greenville TN).
I have more info, but so I'm not boring you by too much at first I'll just site sources now

1. National Archives military records (100 pgs)
2. Tombstone in Doniphan Co KS
3. Marriage certificate
4. Land records and deeds
5. Federal and state of MO census records
6. Will of MARIA's second husband BENJAMIN MEAD of Blooming Grove, NY
7. Buchanan CO MO History

If you are interested and would like some more info please respond at your convenience
Sincerely Evelyn

5227. Charles C."Timothy" Carpenter

Number 707-5 in the Timothy Carpenter book. Born and known as "Timothy."
Buried in Lot 344, section 1. Died at 7:15 AM at home.
Charles referred to as Charlie was orginally named Timothy as recorded in numerous old records, including his father's will. But his legal name was Charles C. Carpenter. Family tradition is that his mother would have named him otherwise. He went before the court and had his name changed legally to Charles (C).
Charlie's will is on file at the Alleghany County Courthouse in Pittsburgh, PA. Jennie was named exectrix without bond. Her will is on file in the same place; the Pittsburgh National Bank was named executor.
The gravestone erected on the family plot includes the names of Charlie and Jennie, plus son Lester. The plot is under perpetual care. The stone was in good condition in 1970, but requires periodic cleaning due to the atmosphere (smog) of the general Pittsburgh area.
After High school graduation, he worked in the grape vineyards inthe Westfield, NY area. The he went to Pittsburgh, PA, where he was employed by an art framing company. Subsequently, he was employed by the PA Railroad, working his way through the ranks from baggage man and brakeman to conductor and retiring after more than 35 years of service. He reside in Wilkinsburg, PA. He was an avid small game hunter and fresh water fisherman and a member of various Pittsburgh area Masonic Organizations. A communicant of the United Brethern Church, he transfered his membership from the church in Greensburg to that of Wilkinsburg when he moved there in 1903. Charles was named executor of his father's will.

Jennie and Charlie honeymooned at Rochester, NY

After High school graduation, Jennie was a temporary school teacher. Later, she attended a State Normal School and became a permanent teacher. she taught all grades in a one room school house. The compiler (of the T.C. book), her son Charles, has in his possession her school bell.
She was named executrix of her mother's estate, it being confirmed absolute in Orphan's Court July 5, 1928 at Bradford, PA.
Jennie was a member of various ladies' organizations of the Masonic Order, the Wilkinsburg Halycon Club for Ladies, and a communicant of the United Brethern Church since 1903. The progenitors of her mother's parents were from Holland. A separate study of that family may be found in the compiler's files.

8257. Lester Wilson Carpenter

Number 1168-6 in the Timothy Carpenter book. Nickname: "Les"
Born at 10:00 PM at his parents home. He was a comunicant of the United Brethern Church, Wilkinsburg, PA dating from April 12, 1914 for 43 years until he transfered to Garden City United Brethern Church at Monroeville, PA.
Lester was called "Les" by most family members. He was a member of the varsity football team at Wilkinsburg High School, from which he graduated in 1923.
He received an appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, MD from the Hon. M. Moran, Representative for the Pittsburgh Congresional District.
He entered the Naval Academy in August 1923, sworn in as a Midshipman, became a member of the varsity track and wrestling teams, was graduated from the Academy in 1927. However, he was not commissioned as an Ensign on account of being unable to pass the strict eye examinations of that era, a failure which befell 17 other members of the Class of 1927.
He entered the business world, becoming a track superintendent for the PA Railroad and an efficiency engineer for the Miller Rubber Company in Akron, OH. He lost his position during the Deprssion of the early 1930's and went into business for himself, establishing three haberdashery stores in the greater Pittsburgh area.
Lester was one of the first to place neckties on racks for sale in drug stores.
Later, he sold out his business and became a salesman for Beckwith Machinery Company, Pittsburgh, which dealt in heavy construction and mining equipment. As one of their top-flight salesmen, he received numerous awards for his endeavors.
At the outbreak of World War Two, Lester was recalled to active Navy duty, attended Indoctrination School at Annapolis, served as an Inspector in ordinance and gunnery at the University of GA, and was then deployed overseas to Australia, where he assembled and fitted out a Beach Master's Crew which was assigned to the Wadke Island Campaign during Gen. MacArthur's push northward from Australia. Les remained on Wadke Island until near the close of hostilities. He was separated from active duty as a Lieutenant and subsequently advanced to the rank of Lieutenant Commander on the Navy inactive list.

Lester returned to the business world and became owner/manager of the first modern motel, the William Penn, along the "miracle mile" at Monroeville, PA. In 1967, he leased the motel and retired to a life of travel and fishing.
He was a member of the Pittsburgh Shrine, the Monroeville Businessmen's Association and the Motel Association, as well as a politician when his advice and endeavors were needed to protect the business community in what was then the fastest growing area in the state of PA.
His will named the Pittsburgh National Bank as executor and mentioned his nephew Charles (1649) and niece Olivia (1650), plus leasing arrangements entered into by he and his wife Mary regarding his motel.
A gravestone in the center of the family plot contains the names and dates of Lester, his father and mother. the stone was in good condition in 1974, but requires periodic cleansing due to atmospheric (smog) conditions in the Pittsburgh area.

Berdie Routh-Carpenter
Berdie Elnora Routh, daughter of Walker and Mary Routh, was born in Marion county, Iowa, January 20, 1876, and died in Osceola, Iowa about 10:30 p. m. June 10, 1944.
Most of her life was spent in and around Osceola, except for a few years in Lenox and Des Moines, Iowa.
On July 29, 1914, in Des Moines, Iowa, she was united in marriage to John Leonard Carpenter. She and her husband have made their home in Osceola since their marriage. To this union one son was born, Marvin L., who survives.
Besides the one son, the husband and three step-sons and one step-daughter are left to mourn the passing of a dear one. The step-sons are: Frank L. of Osceola, Iowa; Fred of Des Moines, Iowa, and Floyd M. of Springfield, Mo. The step-daughter, Alice Engle resides in Des Moines, Iowa.
She united with the Christian church of Osceola in her early twenties.
She has been a good wife, mother and foster mother to those closest to her. It has been said that her step children were as close to her and she loved them as much as she did her own son. And her step-grandchildren, thirteen in number, loved her dearly.
Mrs. Carpenter had been in poor health for about four years. her last illness was of about eighteen months duration.
Besides her husband and children who mourn her passing she leaves two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Matilda Kittler of Osceola and Mrs. Lillie Lukenbill of Leon, Iowa; and one brother, Willie Routh of Osceola, not to mention her many friends and other relatives.
Funeral services were held from the Miller Funeral Home, Wednesday afternoon, June 14 at 2:30 with Rev. McKenzie of the Methodist church at Murray officiating.

COMMENT:
A descendant of this person has Y-DNA tested and the DNA profile does not match Group 3 (this Carpenter line) but Group 98.
Group 98 is based on the genetic descendants of R-M269.
The descendant who Y-DNA tested closely matches the surnames of Matteson/Mattison/Mathewson. THIS SUGGESTS that this Isaac Nathan was formally or informally adopted into this Carpenter lineage. We call this an NPE - non-paternity event..

I'm overwhelmed with gratitude. This is what I had but I wanted to be very sure I wasn't off on the wrong track before sharing with the family. Thank you so very much for sharing this, John R. I can proceed with confidence and finish a promise I made to my sister before she died 2 years ago.

Nice to "meet" you, John of New Hampshire. Kindness abounds.

I find it interesting how the Carpenters migrated to different states. Earl Elijah joined the Masons along the way as he traveled by horseback from Harmony, Chautauqua, NY to Texas. It took some years for the Farmersville chapter to take him in as a member. They probably didn't know what to think about a New Yorker being in their midst. He spent some time in Missouri where there are quite a few Carpenters, also from New York. I've not tackled that branch, yet, but I believe they are mentioned in the Amos Carpenter book.

Thanks, again, and a wish for a safe and healthy 2021.

5153. Isaac Devant Carpenter

Number 654-5 in the Timothy Carpenter book.
This Isaac was referred to as "Levant" in the 1850 Panama census. He is also listed in a 1861 school list. In a letter, his father addressed to his brother Isaac from Tecumseh, OK Territory dated Jan. 31, 1897, Abner stated his son Isaac was then residing at Telvride, Colorado, where he was a construction superintendent for a mining company at a $2,000.00 a year salary. Also he had built a 5,000 foot long tramway which raised 2,000 feet to the mine.
It is recorded that one child's name was Edna, that in 1897 the eldest daughter was deceased, and that four other children were living.
Arthur (1106) records that one child of Isaac's, a son, was an attorney at Cherokee in the OK Territory.

5187. Ai Carpenter

Number 687-5 in the Timothy Carpenter book.
Ai, sometimes referred to as "A.I.", was, according to himself, name Ai after his mother wanted to name him Aaron Isaiah and his father disapproved. Thus, they settle for Ai. The compiler (of the above record) has come across the name "Ai" in numerous old records of the Friends Sect. It also is the name of a Biblical site. There is a school named after Ai Carpenter in Wexford Twp., MI.

Hello John,
A while back I made a note that my husband's mothers parents weren't listed in the family genealogy. Florence (Motter) Carpenters parents were Oscar Motter and Effie Gladys Mayne. Also Ronald's brothers Rodney & Lindy were born in Granite Falls, WA. Rodney was married in Granite Falls and Lindy was married in Everett.
Also I noted that there was no marriage date for Ronald's grandparents, Ai & Adeline (or Addie). I have their marriage certificate and it has July 26, l903. Thank you again. I'm sorry that I overlooked this earlier.
Sincerely, Janice Carpenter.

4992. Cynthia Carpenter

Number 548-5 in the Timothy Carpenter book.
Cynthia reportedly never married. Died aged 29 years, 7 months, 12 days.

2447. Lydia Carpenter

Number 178-4 in the Timothy Carpenter book.
Lydia was named in her father's will. One record gives her birthplace as Mongomery county, NY. Had at least one child.

Michael Daniels

Michael probably served in the War of 1812 since a pension record is mentioned.

2450. John Carpenter

Number 181-4 in the Timothy Carpenter book.
Married twice. Jane probably the second spouse. Children listed are unknown from which spouse or where born other than NY State.
John was mentioned in his father's will. He reportedly was living on Long Island, NY in 1857. <--------- maybe Wolfe Island instead? Yes.

COMMENT: The tenuous connection of Timothy the father to son John is based the 1843 deed citation below. AND, a Y-DNA test on a descendant confirms a genetic profile consistent with the Timothy as a father. See B209928 in Group 2 of the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project.

NOTE:
Per Megan Carpenter - They went to live and work on Wolfe Island, Ontario where they had 5 children:Nancy b. 1847Lavina b. 1849John born 8 March 1851. This is who we descend from.Duane William b. 1855Celina b. 1857John and Lany are on the 1851 Ontario census with Nancy, Lavina, John, and Merritt Dailey, Lany's son by her first marriage. They returned to the US in either 1861 or 1863. John died 13 June 1872 in Chaumont NY. He is buried in the Freeman Tract Cemetary with his first wife Cimanthy on one side, and second wife Lany on the other. A photo of John's headstone is attached to this email. BUT ... that John Carpenter was born about 1795 in Canada!
AND ... no birth records found yet for children.

John,
I've been told that the Rev. De Witt Carpenter wrote a several-page document about the history of the Carpenters that also included some information about one of the Carpenter reunions held in Chautauqua County New York in the late 1800s. Are you familiar with this document? Sorry for asking so many disjointed questions. The part of my current research is a work in progress and isn't complete enough to have much organization to it yet.
Thanks.....
Marjorie

My great-great grandmother.
Viola, the lovely daughter of Henry (Berry, England) and Emma Stillson (Pennsylvania), entered into holy matrimony with DeWitt, on July 16, 1877 in Nathan's Run, Sugar Grove, Pennsylvania.
DeWitt and Viola were blessed with two children, Rollin Jason and Clyde DeWitt Carpenter.

Excerpt:
The Descendants of Timothy Carpenter of Pittstown, Rensselaer Co., New York
Published, 1976:
Dewitt was a Free Methodist Minister. Rev. Carpenter said in a letter that he and his wife had worked together in the ministry 57 years before she died. Viola was a daughter of Henry and Emma Pilling. One record says they were wed at Matthews Run. She had three sisters and a brother, Sarah Martha, Ellen Pearl, Etta & Edmond. A niece's note (re. D. Carpenter) records Viola had one of the sweetest voices ever heard, but refused to study opera, even with her exquisite purity and good range; she said she would use her voice only for the Lord. Her gravestone was in good condition in 1966.

Birth: Apr. 20, 1910
Grayson

Kentucky, USA
Death: Sep. 21, 1982

One of the most intelligent men I have ever known, my beloved and dearly missed grandfather.
Son of Rollin Jason [1023 pg. 148] and Mary Alma [McDavid] Carpenter and brother of Kenneth Vaughn.
Loving husband of Rachel Irene [Barger], and father to Laurieta Rae [Bell] and Kenneth Edward Carpenter [2013-8 pg. 107].
Grandfather to Liberty [Richards], Teresa [McMillion] and Diana [Pargellis] Bell, and Kenny, Christine and Tammy Carpenter.
Great-grandfather to Micah, Melissa, twins Keith and Kevin, twins Natasha and Nicole, Morgan, Tammy, Kelly, Timmy, Doug and Sarah.
My grandfather was a Naval veteran of World War II, an opera recording artist (recorded on 78 rpms LPs!), and employed by Corona's Sunkist factory and school district.
My grandfather's love of Jesus was never questioned. He rarely spoke about his faith as I was growing up until I was in my mid-teens. When I struck up a conversation about Christianity, it seemed to open the doors of a brand new relationship with my grandfather. He brought numerous books out and spoke about the need to not rely upon one translation, and not to limit oneself but to benefit from the knowledge of many authors and translations.
My grandfather was wonderful. He was a man's man, and an incredible conversationalist. He never treated us like we were children, demanded that we show respect and use manners, talk when only spoken to, and make good grades!! haha Yep, we made $1 per A, and we loved bringing our report cards to him every semester!
My grandfather suffered during his last years on earth with emphysema due to decades of smoking. How I wished he were alive in my adult years. How I wish I could have had many years of conversations with him as an adult. I dearly loved my grandfather, and wished so much that my children could have benefited from knowing such a great man.

Mary L. Carpenter
(1928 - 2015)

Mary L. Carpenter

Mary was born June 8, 1928 to Thomas and Jane Leach of Seattle, Washington and passed away surrounded by family members on April 21, 2015 after a short illness. She was married to Lloyd Carpenter who preceded her in death in 1997 just shy of their 50th wedding anniversary.

She and Lloyd raised six children, so for about the first 15 years of their married life she was a homemaker which was a feat unto itself! Six children in nine years! After the youngest was in school, Mom went to work in the cafeteria at Brighton Elementary School. Then she went to work at Russell Stover (candy store) in downtown Seattle until the store closed. Then she moved next door to Frederick & Nelson to their candy section and worked there until that store closed. This her legacy - closing two Seattle icons in the sweet shop industry! She then cared for Dad until his death in October 1997.

She was an independent spirit, never having learned to drive, she took the bus everywhere to shop and walked to church services at Paul's Catholic Church. Until the first of February of this year, she loved working in her garden and for the past 16 years attended an exercise class three days a week at the Southeast Seattle Senior Center.

She is survived by her children Margaret Silverman (Ron), Michael Carpenter, David Carpenter (Tina), Stephen Carpenter, Catherine Nestle, and Joanne Carpenter, 10 grandchildren, and 2 great grandchildren. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Mass will be at St. Paul's Catholic Church at 10 a.m. on Friday, April 24, 2015, with internment following at Holyrood Cemetery.

Committal services for Mrs. Janie Carpenter Cadwell, 84, of the Cadwell Farm, Dewittville, will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in Dewittville Cemetery. Rev. Wayne B. Ostrander, pastor of Dewittville EUB Church will officiate.

Mrs. Cadwell died in the Wilhelm Nursing Home, Sarasota, Fla., Tuesday, April 9, 1963. She had been in failing health since January and was admitted to the nursing home March 9.

The Cadwell family is well known to hundreds of people in this area who have visited the Cheese House at the family farm. Mrs. Cadwell and her husband, Ward Cadwell, who died in 1947, formerly were active in the farm's operation.

Mrs. Cadwell was born in Maple Springs, Jan 13, 1879, a daughter of Orlando and Fannie Carpenter and was a lifelong resident of the area. She had wintered in Sarasota for the past 30 years. A charming hostess, Mrs. Cadwell was a woman of lovely character, domestic in her tastes and endowed with a keen sense of humor and cheerfulness.

A son, Ford Cadwell, Dewittville; a granddaughter, Mrs. Jane Morell, Niagara Falls; a sister, Mrs. Elton Hunt, Jamestown, and several nieces and nephews survive. Besides her husband and parents Mrs. Cadwell was preceded in death by two sister, Lelia Townsend and Belle Furlow.

Many area residents wintering in Sarasota attended funeral services there Saturday in Roberts Funeral Home. Rev. J. Moody McNair, pastor of Sarasota Presbyterian Church, officiated.

[At] Watertown at 1026 and 1022 Arsenal Street. This was the beginning of Will's butcher shops in Watertown- first Arsenal Street, then East Hoard St, and then his store at 952 W. Main.

Will made a will directing his debts and funeral expenses be paid. His estate consisting of 4 pieces of property to be held in trust by Nettie. At her death one piece of property was to be turned over to each of the three children with the hoe place on West Main being sold and the proceeds to be divided equally among the three. Nettie Alberta Bawler

COMMENT:
Bawler (Find-a-grave has Brawler and is incorrect).
Nettie was the adopted daughter of Henry Bawler and Roxalina (Roxy, Lany) Snyder from Victoria County Ontario. Born Nov 5, 1879 in Dalton, Victoria County (not Toronto). Per Megan Carpenter.
NOTE:
The Township of Dalton was a municipality located in the northwest corner of the former Victoria County, now the city of Kawartha Lakes, in the Canadian province of Ontario. It was named after Dr. John Dalton (1766–1844), an English scientist who contributed to the foundations of atomic theory.
Dalton had an extensive history in logging and colonization along the Old Monck Road (Kawartha Lakes 45). Several Ghost villages dot the former township, many of them old logging/farming communities from the late 19th century. These include Ragged Rapids and Dartmoor. Some have survived since the logging days and remain inhabited, including Sadowa, Sebright, and Uphill. Back then, one of the most picturesque figures of the municipal history of the township was Joseph Thompson who was reeve for a quarter of a century. Thompson was a great hunter and many legends had been handed down concerning his prowess in the wilderness.

10991. Iva May Carpenter

CENSUS: 1900 US Census - with parents and grand parents.
Ira is a male name but listed as a female in the census record! When I look at the census image, I believe the enumerator crossed out the first letter and placed a O above it. This would make the name Ora a female name. But it could also be seen as an I. BUT ... her grave info indicates she was Iva May!

Clemens, 60, of 433 N. 24th St., who was wounded in action five times in World War II, died Thursday in Leila Hospital after a long illness. He was born in Sherman and moved to Battle Creek with his family when he was 3. He enlisted in the Army in July 1942 and was wounded in action five times in battles in Africa, Sicily, Italy, France and Germany. Twice after being wounded, he bandaged himself and kept on fighting, taking over for wounded command officers. Three times his wounds were serious enough to require lengthy hospitalization, and he returned to battle after each hospital stay. In November of 1944 he received a battlefield commission as a second lieutenant. In addition to being awarded Purple Heart medals with Oak Leaf clusters, he also was decorated with the Silver Star with Oak Leaf cluster, and three times was cited for gallantry in action. Before the war he was employed by Clemens Delivery Service, owned by his father, and after the war he was employed as a driver for the Carlings Brewing He retired in 1980 from Atlas Sales Inc. after 21 years of service. She last worked as the Controller at San Antonio Urban Ministries until her retirement.In her spare time, Carolyn enjoyed the outdoors and could often be found hiking in Texas, Colorado, and Massachusetts with her family, admiring the wildflowers everywhere she went. She loved to read, garden, fish, hike, collect sea shells, quilt, and watch butterflies and hummingbirds in her backyard. When she wasn't enjoying these activities, she was following and watching UT sports. She was proud to be a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and also enjoyed time with her quilting group. Her warmth and kindness and love of the outdoors will be missed by all.

Hello,
I just found your ancestry page, and found some mistakes so I thought I would let you know about them:
32386 Ernest William Glidden was born Apil 4, 1920 and died in Seattle, WA on April 14, 1999 at the age orf 79.
He was not married to Martha Million (as your site says) but to Cecelia Mariotto Glidden, born Nov. 24, 1925.
37172 Luann Cecelia Glidden -- the middle name is incorrect. My actual middle name is "Cecile"
I married Kevin Galen Budd
We have four children: Jeff Budd (maried Wendy Bonney), David Budd (married Sarah Davis), Shawn Budd, Ashley Budd
Brian Glidden married Virgina. They have two sons: Jordan and Alex.
Thanks,
Luann (Glidden) Budd

Cecelia Ann Mariotto

NOTE:
Cecelia had been married to a Barton previously. Alive in March 2020.

Hi John,
I see that you have an entry for myself and my father, Ernest William Glidden, but you are missing the information about my mother, Cecelia Ann (Mariotto) Glidden.
Ernest William Glidden married Cecelia Ann Mariotto on July 9, 1956. Cecelia has been previously married, hence, "Cecelia A Barton" on the marriage license. They had two children (which you have correctly added in the Carpenter Cousin Project -- the problem is that we are NOT the children of Martha Million, but of Cecelia.)
• Luann Cecelia Budd (b. 3-7-1956)
• Brian Wayne Glidden (b 3.7.1959)
Ernest died on 21 April 1999 in Seattle, WA. Here is his burial information. (The person who made the entry incorrectly spelled my mother and fathers name as "Gliddend." I've submitted a request that it be edited.)
You'll note that Cecelia is also listed as his spouse.
https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/86760030/ernest-w_-gliddend
My brother and I are still living, as is my mother, Cecelia.
I've attached the Marriage licenses for your reference.
Please let me know if you have any questions.
